What these fees cover

Escrow settlement fee: covers the escrow and settlement services for the transaction, including file management, document preparation, coordination with all parties, and facilitation of closing and disbursement.

Financed purchase settlement fee: covers the additional escrow and settlement services a financed purchase needs, including coordinating with the lender, preparing closing documents, managing escrow, satisfying lender closing requirements, and facilitating the final settlement and disbursement of funds.

Notary fee: covers notarization of the transaction documents, confirming that all signatures are authentic and willingly given, which helps prevent fraud. This fee is waived for active-duty and veteran U.S. military on Colorado transactions.

The fees above represent Propy Title's escrow and settlement services. Additional title insurance premiums, third-party fees, recording fees, taxes, HOA fees, courier fees or other transaction-specific charges may apply. The military notary fee waiver applies to Colorado transactions handled by Propy Title and covers Propy Title's standard notary fee.

Title insurance

Title insurance premiums are based on the purchase price and the loan amount. They protect you from financial loss caused by title problems such as liens, unpaid taxes or ownership disputes. Scan the Get a quote code below for your exact number in seconds.
